

Whistle Blower Policy

1. Preface

The Company believes in the conduct of the affairs of its constituents in a fair and transparent manner, by adopting the highest standards of professionalism, honesty, integrity and ethical behaviour.

The Company is committed to developing a culture where it is safe for all employees to raise concerns about any poor or unacceptable practice and any event of misconduct.

The listing regulations with the stock exchanges requires all listed companies to establish a mechanism, “Whistle Blower Policy” for employees to report to the management, instances of unethical behaviour, actual or suspected fraud.

The Companies Act, 2013, vide Section 177, mandates that the listed companies and such class of companies should establish a vigil mechanism for directors and employees to report genuine concerns, in such manner as may be prescribed. The vigil mechanism shall provide for adequate safeguards against victimization of employees, who use such mechanism and for direct access to the chairperson of the Audit Committee in appropriate or exceptional cases.

Accordingly, this Whistle Blower Policy (“the Policy”) has been formulated with a view to provide a mechanism for employees of the Company and Directors to approach the Audit Committee of the Company.

2. Purpose

Banka BioLoo Limited is committed to complying with foreign and domestic laws that apply to them, assuring that business is conducted with integrity and that the Company’s financial information is accurate. If potential violations of Company policies or applicable laws are not recognized and addressed promptly, both, the Company and those working for or with the Company could face penalties. In order to promote ethical standards, the Company will maintain the workplace that facilitates reporting of potential violations of Company policies and applicable laws. Employees must be able to raise concerns regarding such potential violations easily and without any fear of retaliation.

3. Definitions

The definitions of some of the key terms used in this Policy are given below. Capitalized terms not defined herein shall have the meaning assigned to them under the applicable law.

4. Scope

- a. The whistle blower’s role is that of a reporting party with reliable information. One is not required or expected to act as investigator or finder of facts, nor would one determine the appropriate corrective or remedial action that may be warranted in a given case.

- b. Whistle blower should not act on one's own in conducting any investigative activity, nor does one have a right to participate in any investigative activities, other than as requested by the authorised officer or the Chairman of the Audit Committee or the Investigator.
- c. Protected disclosure will be appropriately dealt with by the Chairman of the Audit Committee, or an officer authorised for this purpose, as the case may be.
- d. Whistle blower must put one's name to allegation(s) and investigation may not be possible, unless the source of the information is identified. Disclosures expressed anonymously will NOT be investigated in normal course.

The Policy covers malpractices and events, which have taken place/suspected to take place involving:

- 1. Abuse of authority
- 2. Breach of contract
- 3. Negligence causing substantial and specific danger to public health and safety
- 4. Manipulation of company data/ records
- 5. Financial irregularities, including fraud or suspected fraud
- 6. Deficiencies in internal control and check
- 7. Deliberate error in preparation of financial statements or misrepresentation of financial reports
- 8. Any unlawful act, whether civil/ criminal
- 9. Deliberate violation of law/ regulation
- 10. Perforation of confidential/ proprietary information
- 11. Wastage/ misappropriation of company funds/ assets
- 12. Breach of company policies or failure to implement or comply with an approved company policy.

The Policy should not be used in place of company grievance procedure, or to be a route for raising malicious or unfounded allegations against colleagues.

5. Eligibility

All employees of the Company and the directors are eligible to make protected disclosure, under the Policy. The protected disclosure may be in relation to matters concerning the Company or its subsidiaries.

6. Disqualifications

- a. While it will be ensured that genuine whistle blower is accorded complete protection from any kind of unfair treatment, as herein set out, any abuse of this protection will warrant disciplinary action.
- b. Protection under this Policy would not mean protection from disciplinary action arising out of false or bogus allegations made by a whistle blower, knowing it to be false or bogus or with a mala fide intention.

- c. Whistle blower, who makes a protected disclosure, which has been subsequently found to be mala fide or malicious, or whistle blower who makes three or more protected disclosure, which have been subsequently found to be frivolous, baseless or reported otherwise than in good faith, will be disqualified.

7. Procedure

- a. A protected disclosure concerning financial/ accounting matter should be addressed to the Chairman of the Audit Committee of the Company for investigation.
- b. In respect of other protected disclosures, those concerning the employees at the level of General Manager/Vice President and above, should be addressed to the Chairman of the Audit Committee of the Company, and those concerning other employees should be addressed to the authorised officer, appointed in this regard, i.e., the Compliance Officer of the Company.
- c. The contact details of the Chairman of the Audit Committee are as under:

Mr. Sanjay Gangwar
Chairman – Audit Committee
Banka BioLoo Limited
Plot 11-4-651, A-109, Express Apartment

In case, a whistle blower feels that one has been victimized in employment-related matters because of reporting about the violation of the Code, one can submit a “grievance” to the authorised officer, giving specific details of nature of victimization, allegedly suffered by the employee. All such grievances will be examined by the Audit Committee. The Committee meets at regular intervals, and will examine the grievances on merits. The Committee will also conduct necessary investigation of the concern, and recommend appropriate action, as the case may be.

While the senior management is determined to give appropriate protection to the genuine whistle blowers, the employees, at the same time, are advised to refrain from using this facility for furthering their own personal interest. If proved, such cases may be referred to the Audit Committee for disciplinary action.

- d. If a protected disclosure is received by any executive of the Company, other than the Chairman of Audit Committee, the same should be forwarded to the Company’s Authorised Officer, or the Chairman of the Audit Committee for further appropriate action. Appropriate care must be taken to keep the identity of the whistle blower confidential.

- e. Protected disclosure should, preferably, be reported in writing so as to ensure a clear understanding of the issues raised, and should either be typed or written in a legible handwriting in English.
- f. The protected disclosure should be forwarded under a covering letter, which shall bear the identity of the whistle blower. The Chairman of the Audit Committee / Authorised Officer, as the case may be, shall detach the cover letter, and forward only the protected disclosure to the Audit Committee for investigation.
- g. Protected disclosure should be factual and not speculative, or in the nature of a conclusion, and should contain as much specific information as possible to assess the nature and extent of the concern.
- h. For the purpose of providing protection to the whistle blower, the whistle blower should disclose one's identity in the cover letter, forwarding such protected disclosure.

8. Investigation

- a. All protected disclosures reported under this Policy will be thoroughly investigated by the Audit Committee of the Company, in accordance with the normal procedure. The Audit Committee may, at its discretion, consider the involvement of any other officer of the Company for the purpose of investigation.
- b. The decision to conduct an investigation is not an accusation, and is to be treated as a neutral fact-finding process. The outcome of the investigation may not support the conclusion of the whistle blower that an improper or unethical act was committed.
- c. The identity of a subject will be kept confidential to the extent possible, given the legitimate needs of law and the investigation.
- d. Subject will normally be informed of the allegations at the outset of a formal investigation, and have opportunities for providing one's inputs during the investigation.
- e. Subject shall have a duty to co-operate with the Authorised Officer / Audit Committee during investigation, to the extent that such co-operation will not compromise self-incrimination protections available under the applicable laws.
- f. Subject has a right to consult person(s) of one's choice, except Authorised Officer or the Audit Committee and/or the whistle blower. This may involve representation, including legal representation. Subject shall be free at any time to engage counsel at one's own cost to represent them in the investigation proceedings.
- g. Subject has a responsibility not to interfere with the investigation. Evidence shall not be withheld, destroyed or tampered with, and witnesses shall not be influenced, coached, threatened or intimidated by the subject. If one is found indulging in any such action, it will make the person liable for disciplinary actions. Under no circumstances, subject should compel investigator to disclose the identity of the whistle blower.

- h. Unless there is compelling reason not to do so, subject will be given the opportunity to respond to material findings contained in an investigation report. No allegation of wrongdoing against a subject shall be considered as maintainable, unless there is good evidence in support of the allegation.
- i. Subject has a right to be informed of the outcome of the investigation. If allegation is not sustained, the subject should be consulted as to whether public disclosure of the investigation results would be in the best interest of the subject and the Company.
- j. The investigation shall be completed normally within 45 days of the receipt of the protected disclosure.

9. Secrecy/Confidentiality

The whistle blower, the subject, the Authorised Officer, and everyone involved in the process shall:

- a. maintain complete confidentiality/ secrecy of the matter
- b. not discuss the matter in any informal/ social gathering/ meeting
- c. discuss only to the extent, or with the persons required for the purpose of completing the process and investigations
- d. not keep the papers unattended anywhere, at any time
- e. keep the electronic mails/files under password.

If anyone is found not complying with the above, one shall be held liable for such disciplinary action as is considered fit.

10. Protection

- a. No unfair treatment will be shown to the whistle blower in view of the person having reported a protected disclosure under this Policy. The Company, as a policy, condemns any kind of discrimination, harassment, victimization or any other unfair employment practice being adopted.
- b. No one may take any adverse action against any employee for complaining about, reporting, or participating, or assisting in the investigation of, a reasonably suspected violation of any law. The Company takes reports of such retaliation seriously. Incidents of retaliation against an employee reporting a violation or participating in the investigation of a reasonably suspected violation will result in appropriate disciplinary action against anyone responsible, including possible termination of employment. Those working for or with the Company who engage in retaliation against reporting employees may also be subject to appropriate penalties.

11. Decision

If an investigation leads the Audit Committee to conclude that an improper or unethical act has been committed, the Authorised Officer/ Chairman of the Audit Committee shall recommend to the management of the Company to take such disciplinary or corrective action as the Audit Committee may deem fit. It is clarified that any disciplinary or corrective action initiated against the subject, as a result of the findings of an investigation, pursuant to this Policy shall adhere to the applicable personnel or staff conduct and disciplinary procedures.

12. False Complaint

While this Policy is intended to protect genuine whistle blower from any unfair treatment as a result of one's disclosure, misuse of this protection by making frivolous and bogus complaints with mala fide intention is strictly prohibited. Personnel who complain with mala fide intention, and which are subsequently found to be false, will be subject to strict disciplinary action.

13. Reporting

The Authorised Officer shall submit a report to the Audit Committee on a regular basis about all protected disclosures received, since the last report, together with the results of investigations, if any.

14. Retention of Documents

All protected disclosures, along with the results of investigation relating thereto, shall be retained by the Company for a minimum period of eight years.

15. Amendment

The Company reserves its right to amend or modify this Policy, in whole or in part, at any time, without assigning any reason, subject to the approval of the Audit Committee or Board.

This policy was adopted by the Board of Directors in their meeting held on 27 July 2020 as per the recommendations of the Audit Committee vide their meeting held on 27 July 2020.
